

Local User Discount Scheme Application for Economic Hardship Scheme

The Economic Hardship Scheme (EHS) provides access to the Local User Discount Scheme (LUDS) for those residents of Halton Borough who are ineligible to apply because they live in a house in Council Tax Band G or H but have a low household income.

This application form is to be completed by residents of Halton Borough who live in a house that is in Council Tax Band G or H. If you are unsure of your house's Council Tax Band or if you pay your Council Tax to Halton Borough Council then you can check this information at www.gov.uk/council-tax-bands.

To qualify for the Economic Hardship Scheme on the grounds of low income, the relevant household income should be equal to or lower than the Benefit Cap, this is defined at www.gov.uk/benefit-cap/benefit-cap-amounts.

This application form is only used to determine your household income. If you are successful in this application you then need to apply for LUDS.

To qualify for LUDS you must still;

- Prove you are a resident of Halton Borough with a valid UK driving Licence;
- Prove the vehicle (class two only) is registered in your name (or prove you have sole use of a company vehicle);
- Pay the £10 annual fee.

Only complete one EHS application per household, if you need another form for additional residents of the household, you obtain them at www.merseyflow.co.uk. If successful all eligible resident in the household will be able to apply for LUDS.

Complete this form to give your estimated income for tax year 2017-18.

If you're awarded Economic Hardship for this year you may be required to provide evidence of your household income at a later date.
